A WORD FROM OUR CHAIR: RICHARD LUPIEN

The 2019-2020 season was one of great challenges and accomplishments at the JM Canada Foundation. Taking office in September 2019, Gabrielle Blackburn, the first female Executive Director in the history of the Foundation, took charge of the organization's various fundraising activities, numerous awards and bursaries, financial management, and the development of our first strategic plan, all while maintaining strong ties with our donors and partners.

It is difficult to overlook COVID-19 and its impacts on young musicians. At the JM Canada Foundation, we decided to be creative in our support for the emerging generation. In March, when we were all under lockdown, I composed a few pieces around the musical theme Do Mi Si La Do Ré, the notes that, in French, spell the place where we can protect ourselves against the spread of the disease, i.e. Domicile adoré, or Home Sweet Home. Having posted my compositions on social media, I was approached by a major benefactor who encouraged me to organize a contest for young composers, singers and instrumentalists, and have them in turn use these notes to get creative during this crisis. In just a few days, we set up the first edition of the Do Mi Si La Do Ré (Domicile adoré / Home Sweet Home) Contest. Thanks to everyone's mobilization and engagement, I am extremely happy that the Foundation was able to hand out a grand total of $128,000 in awards and bursaries to 74 musicians aged 30 and under from across the country.

Our charitable organization is proud to pursue its mission by collecting, creating and managing funds to support the JM Canada mission of promoting the discovery of various types of classical music among young audiences, and supporting the career development of young classical musicians.

I conclude by extending my thanks to our Executive Director, the administration team and the members and administrators of the JM Canada Foundation Board of Directors for their unfailing passion and dedication. Thanks to you, classical music continues to resonate strongly in the lives of young people.

Chair

A WORD FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

It was with great enthusiasm that I accepted the position of Executive Director of the JM Canada Foundation. The first challenge was to set up a think tank on the Foundation's development, mission and ongoing support for JM Canada, and to set up a committee to develop our first strategic plan. Following many intensive meetings and lively discussions, the Foundation will be ready to present its plan in the course of the 2020-2021 season.

Again this year, we had the pleasure of hosting the annual golf tournament at the Mount Bruno Country Club. The 5th edition of the Coup de Cœur event could not be held due to the COVID-19 health crisis that hit in mid-March 2020. However, the Do Mi Si La Do Ré (Home Sweet Home) Contest was created, bringing together young Canadian musicians aged 30 and under, Canadian cultural institutions and their musicians, media organizations from across the country, and many music lovers. This great music celebration allowed the Foundation, as well as JM Canada, to set itself apart and gain great visibility in the arts and culture sector.

Again this season the Foundation awarded bursaries to the most promising young musicians via the AIDA Fund. The Peter Mendell Award was presented to violinist Lynette Israelian from the Conservatoire de musique du Québec à Montréal. The Choquette-Symcox Award was cancelled due to the pandemic.

Despite the cancellation of events and the volatility of financial markets, the Foundation is doing well financially and is more confident than ever that it can continue to fulfil its mission.

In ending, I would like to thank the many donors, foundations and partners for their great generosity and support. We can never say it enough: every donation matters and makes a real difference in the lives of our young people. A big thank you also to all our volunteers for their ongoing commitment and presence. Together, we are allowing the next generation to dream, blossom, and discover a musical universe like no other.

Gabrielle Blackburn
Executive Director

FONDATION JEUNESSES MUSICALES CANADA FONDATION

The JM Canada Foundation is a charitable organization whose mission is to raise, create and administer funds in order to:

1. Support the mission of JM Canada: to foster the discovery of classical music among young audiences and to support the career development of young classical musicians on the national stage.
2. Support the career development of young Canadian musicians.

FUNDRAISING ACTIVITIES

2019 GOLF TOURNAMENT

On Monday, August 26, 2019, under Honorary Chair Richard Rousseau, our annual golf tournament raised $88 388. Forty players took advantage of this unifying and summery fundraising event at Mount Bruno Country Club. The evening featured a gourmet dinner, a silent auction and a musical performance by soprano Cécile Muhire, French horn player Florence Rousseau, and pianist Esther Gonthier to close off this magnificent day.

SCOTIABANK CHARITY RUN – CANCELLED

Following the Quebec government's announcement in mid-March 2020 that all events had to be cancelled or postponed, the Scotiabank Charity Run, which was scheduled to take place on April 25 and 26, 2020 at Parc Jean Drapeau, was cancelled. Many runners were registered for this challenge and the project nonetheless raised $1079.

5TH EDITION OF THE COUP DE CŒUR EVENT – CANCELLED

Following the Quebec government's announcement in mid-March 2020 that all events had to be cancelled or postponed, and in order to avoid the spread of COVID-19, the JM Canada Foundation decided to cancel its fundraising event scheduled for April 28, 2020 at the Windsor Ballrooms.

This 5th edition, which was intended as a final tribute to Joseph Rouleau, nonetheless raised $35 434.

PROJECT AND CONTEXT

In response to the needs and concerns of emerging musicians through the pandemic, the Jeunesses Musicales Canada Foundation was proud to launch the Do Mi Si La Do Ré (Home Sweet Home Contest) on April 20, 2020. This pan-Canadian competition was open to any Canadian classical musician, singer, or composer aged 30 and under. Participants were invited to submit a video of the creation/performance of an original composition (alone or with a group) of three minutes or less on the theme of Do Mi Si La Do Ré.

Uptake far exceeded our initial expectations, with over 220 entries and 173 compositions selected from seven provinces.

JURIES

Applications underwent an initial internal evaluation by the JMC Foundation to determine eligibility according to pre-established criteria. From May 20 to June 14, winning entries were posted online to a platform called Fundky to allow audiences to discover the artists and their works and vote for their favorites (see Participation Awards). All submissions were then randomly distributed across the three preselection juries, which were made up of 34 members of Canada's classical music network. Finally, based on the score obtained, the top 10 submissions made it to the finals of the Competition and the 10 finalists' works were submitted to the Grand Jury. All data was independently verified by an external party.

IMPACT OF THE CONTEST ON JM CANADA

The JM Canada Foundation's Do Mi Si La Do Ré Contest greatly contributed to JMC's social media and website outreach efforts between April and June.

Social Media

From April to June, the JM Canada Facebook page saw a 10.54% increase in follows, for a total of 893 people. This includes 670 follows (a 15% increase) and 223 likes (a 5% increase). During this period, our monthly increase in followers was three times greater than usual (300%).

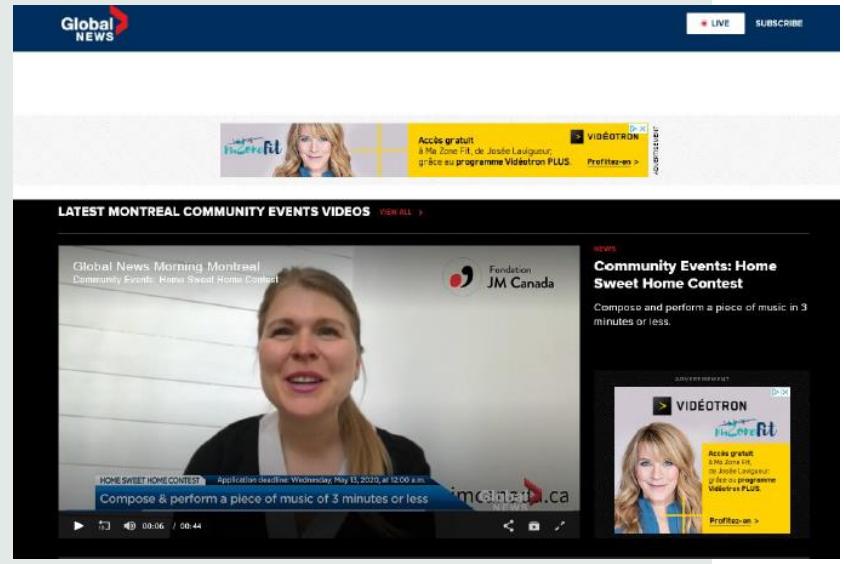

Website

Compared to the April to June 2019 period, this year (2020) we saw a 44% increase in jmcanada.ca website users. The contest generated 22,180 specific page visits 8,000 JM Canada home page visits, representing 56% of the total website traffic during this period

Press

The Contest and the Foundation enjoyed high visibility across the country. Here are a few figures:

- 19 radio interviews across the country (Quebec, Ontario, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia) with Executive Director Gabrielle Blackburn
- 1 interview on Radio-Canada – Télégournal d'Ottawa – with Executive Director Gabrielle Blackburn
- 1 radio interview at Radio-Canada Halifax with Conductor Marc David
- 1 TV interview with Conductor Yannick Nézet-Séguin on Ça va bien aller! – TVA – Marie-Soleil Dion and Fabien Cloutier
- 4 interviews (Quebec and Ontario) with contest winners
- 133 social media posts, radio/newspaper/cultural blog mentions, etc.

FOUNDATION AWARDS AND BURSARIES

PETER MENDELL AWARD

On September 14, 2019, the JM Canada Foundation and Peter Mendell were pleased to announce that Lynette Israelian (violin) was awarded the 2019 Peter Mendell Award and the associated $5,000 excellence bursary. The two other finalists for the award were Sienna Minkyong Cho (violin) and Élie Boissinot (cello). Each won a $500 scholarship awarded by Jeunesses Musicales Canada.

The jury was made up of three members: Peter Mendell, lawyer, cellist and award creator, Claudia Morissette, Director of Montreal's Notre-Dame Basilica, Danièle LeBlanc, Executive and Artistic Director of Jeunesses Musicales Canada.

CHOQUETTE SYMCOX AWARD – CANCELLED

The Foundation and Peter Symcox made a joint decision not to present an award this year as a result of the global pandemic.

AIDA FUND

Due to the COVID-19 health crisis, the bursaries pledged in February 2020 were not awarded to the young musicians. The projects (internships, competitions, etc.) of the eight recipients were all cancelled or postponed. The Foundation decided that the bursaries would be awarded during the 2020-2021 season. However, the recipients will be required to submit a new project to the Foundation for the amount pledged.

The Foundation did not issue a call for bursary projects in May 2020 as scheduled due to the pandemic.

The value of the AIDA Fund as of June 30, 2019 was $2,776,765. At that time, the JM Canada Foundation policy was to pay out 6% of the fund's value as of June 30, or $166,606. Since the fund is assigned in perpetuity, we are required by law to pay 3.5% per year. For the year 2019-2020, this represents a minimum of $97,187.

As of June 30, 2020, we had paid out $102,250, therefore the 3.5% was largely reached.

FINANCIAL REPORT

INCOME STATEMENT

At June 30, 2020, the Jeunesse Musicales Canada Foundation (JMCF) recorded an excess of revenue over expenses before contributions and transfers of $541,526, compared to a surplus of $522,266 in 2019. Contributions and transfers amounted to $548,085 in 2020, versus $729,961 in 2019. Lastly, an unrealized loss from the disposal of investments in the amount of $414,909 (gain of $106,637 in 2019) is included in the results for the Foundation, which ends its fiscal year with a loss of $421,468, compared to a loss of $101,058 at June 30, 2019.

The Foundation's income saw a decrease of $41,106 compared with the previous year. While income from donations and activities fell by $87,241—primarily attributable to the cancellation of the Coup de cœur event—investment income saw an increase of $46,135. The golf tournament generated a net income of $88,388, compared to $98,443, and the Coup de cœur event—though cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic—managed to raise a net amount of $35,433, compared to $93,229 in 2019.

Total expenses decreased by $242,242 (23.9%), going from $1,014,296 to $772,054. The postponement of the Coup de Coeur event explains a downward variation of $73,656, the transfers to the in-perpetuity endowment fund of $104,176, while the prizes, bursaries, and contributions paid out from the AIDA Fund were $78,700 lower. As for the portfolio, it saw a non-materialized depreciation of $414,909, compared to an appreciation of $106,637 at June 30, 2019.

This year, once again, the Foundation made a direct contribution to Jeunesse Musicales Canada activities with a donation of $331,000 ($330,000 in 2019). It also supported the careers of several young artists by awarding prizes and bursaries amounting to a total of $86,250 ($144,950 in 2019).

BALANCE SHEET

The value of the JMC Foundation's assets at June 30, 2020 saw a decrease of 3.9% ($326,420), amounting to a total of $7,984,109 ($8,310,529 in 2019).

The value of investments indicates an amount of $7,796,111 at June 30, 2020—a decrease of 2.2% compared to June 30, 2019. To meet its financial obligations, the JMCF withdrew $515,000 ($20,235 in 2019) from the Gilles Lefebvre Fund, made no withdrawals from the Foundation of Greater Montreal ($512,000 in 2019), and withdrew $106,491 ($148,238 in 2019) from the endowment fund (AIDA).

FUND MANAGEMENT

The management of the Jeunesse Musicales Canada Foundation's funds—with the exception of funds held at the Foundation of Greater Montreal (FGM)—remains entrusted to the firm of Jarislowsky Fraser Limited, which is mandated to manage the Foundation's funds with a dynamic and long-term investment approach, according to the investment policy approved by the board of directors.

The market value of the portfolio managed by Jarislowsky Fraser was $6,287,229 at June 30, 2020 and $1,507,419 for the FGM. Added to this are the in-perpetuity funds that are not reported on the Foundation's balance sheet. The Joseph-Rouleau and André-Bourbeau funds had a market value of $2,369,268 at June 30, 2020, while the value of the philanthropic fund transferred to the Fondation Québec Philanthrope was $72,814.

JEUNESSES MUSICALES CANADA

OUR MANDATE

Since 1949, Jeunesses Musicales Canada (JM Canada) has produced, presented and circulated professional concerts in outlying areas outside of major urban centers, thanks notably to a network of 150 local volunteers who help produce its touring concerts in halls and schools.

OUR MISSION

To promote the discovery of various types of classical music among young audiences.
To support the development of young classical musicians on the national stage.

OUR VISION

To become the national leader in:
Introducing young audiences to the experience of classical music;
Recruiting and supporting promising young musicians.

OUR ORGANIZATIONAL VALUES

EXCELLENCE

JM Canada presents the best classical music programming and the most promising artists.

ACCESSIBILITY

JM Canada plans and implements musical activities that reach and make classical music accessible to audiences across the country.

COMMITMENT

JM Canada is committed to working collaboratively with all partners (including artists, volunteers, collaborators, and sponsors) to foster their participation and involvement, with a view to fully achieving its mission and vision.

EDUCATION

Through its activities and initiatives, JM Canada fosters knowledge, listening, openness, creativity, classical music appreciation, and professional artist development.

PERSONAL GROWTH

JM Canada's programming provides high-quality, enriching, and entertaining experiences.

Jeunesse Musicales Canada employs 11 permanent staff members. In addition, Jeunesse Musicales New Brunswick works with a Development Officer to support its New Brunswick Chapters. In July 2019, JM Canada hired a musical mediator to oversee its workshops, which allowed that new acquisition to singlehandedly present 121 workshops over a period of 5 months, as compared to 94 workshops for the same months, all given by a contract-based network of JM Canada facilitators. The arrival of the musical mediator also supported the implementation of ongoing training for early childhood education facilitators in the Greater Montreal Area. Beyond the Greater Montreal Area, JM Canada recruited 3 new facilitators for Ontario (1) and Nova Scotia (2) while still collaborating with 3 facilitators in New Brunswick. Contract employees include technicians and receptionists at Joseph Rouleau Hall who fill in for staff outside of normal office hours, as well as the building maintenance team. An additional 110 artists, facilitators and designers are employed in some capacity or other either directly or indirectly by JM Canada.

The biggest human resources management issue dealt with this year was the creation of an overtime policy, prepared by an internal committee of employees and approved by the Board of Directors on June 6, 2020.

SPECIAL THANKS

JOSEPH ROULEAU IN MEMORIAM DONATIONS – OCTAVES EVENT – ANNUAL CAMPAIGN – JMC CHAPTERS

A sincere thank you to the many donors who contributed to the success of these various fundraising campaigns as well as to the many benefactors and sponsors in the regions who support our organization's network of volunteer Chapters locally.
