

IWAN EDWARDS YOUNG CHORAL CONDUCTORS' SCHOLARSHIP ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The Iwan Edwards Young Choral Conductors Scholarship, (hereafter referred to as 'the scholarship') is part of a financial assistance program designed to support one recipient annually with non-recurring funding for a distinct project related to choral conducting, such as a master class, perfection program, professional development or other initiative.

1. Candidates sought: Young choral conductors, (hereafter referred to as 'the conductor'), who exhibit remarkable potential and are dedicated to pursuing conducting as a professional career. Conductors with 'remarkable potential' are defined as those who, through their talent, and performance skills, would position them to participate in activities at a national or even international level.

2. Eligibility:
 - a. Be 35 years old or under at the time of the application.
 - b. Are a Canadian citizen or have landed immigrant status.
 - i. Definition: A landed immigrant is a person who has changed their permanent residence to a Canadian province where they have residency rights even though they do not have Canadian citizenship rights. An example of a landed immigrant is a French citizen who has permanent residence in Canada. A permanent resident of Canada is an individual who is not a Canadian citizen and who has been granted permission to live in Canada without any time limit. Note that students from foreign countries are not usually considered landed immigrants, since they must have a study permit to stay in Canada.

3. Types of projects eligible for Iwan Edwards Young Choral Conductors Scholarship – projects must be related to choral conducting:
 - I. Advanced training at recognized institutions
 - II. Participation in internships/coaching with recognized instructors
 - III. Working with a specialist to prepare repertoires
 - IV. Any other project relating to choral conducting

IMPORTANT: To be eligible for funding consideration, proposed projects must commence no earlier than three (3) months after the application deadline. The foundation does not fund projects that are already in progress during the evaluation process.

4. Types of projects NOT eligible for financial support from the JM Canada

Foundation:

Applications relating to:

- I. Recordings
- II. The remuneration of other musicians
- III. The production of promotional objects

If in doubt, check with the JM Canada Foundation to see if your project is eligible.

5. Recurrence of requests: Each candidate may only receive one Iwan Edward Scholarship throughout their career. Successful recipients are not eligible for subsequent awards from this scholarship program. Unsuccessful candidates are encouraged to reapply in the following years if they continue to meet the eligibility criteria.

6. Criteria for the presentation of projects: Official application for the scholarship takes place through the completion of an authorized online form, serving to demonstrate that the applicant has the talent and skills required for the fulfillment of their career.

Applicants must show how their project is in keeping with a coherent professional approach, define its impact and the benefits it would have on the development of their career, and demonstrate the ways in which it meets these objectives. Applications will be assessed based on the conductor's qualifications, the quality of the submission, the value of the project, its feasibility, and its related costs.

7. Conductors must submit a complete application using the online form, including:
