

Jeunesses Musicales Canada

Jeunesses Musicales Canada is a team of music enthusiasts who surround themselves with a host of artists and designers all of whom take part in the perpetual artistic buzz of the Maison André-Bourbeau, a historic building located directly on Mont-Royal Avenue in the heart of the Plateau.

As a non-profit organization, our mission is twofold: to promote the discovery of classical musics among young audiences and to support the career development of young classically trained musicians on the national scene.

Through discovery, JM Canada is committed to broadcasting and/or producing concerts and musical activities designed to promote awareness and understanding of classical musics in various forms among young people aged 0 to 16.

We are currently looking for a:

Assistant director and tour manager

As assistant director, you will participate in the creation of Jeunesses Musicales Canada's 2024 opera production, "La voix humaine & French melodies". As tour manager, you will be part of the technical team of 3 people ensuring the smooth running of the tour. To learn more about the project, click here.
